Each party is hereby enjoined and restrained from selling, encumbering, trading, contracting to sell, or otherwise disposing or removing from the jurisdiction of the court any of the property belonging to the parties except in the ordinary course of business. When divorce cases are filed, the filing party or his or her attorney will attach copies of this Standing Order to the original and service copies of the original pleadings.
3. All parties in Domestic Relations actions, as defined by O.C.G.A. Section 19-1-1, and their agents, servants, employees and all other persons acting in concert with such parties are hereby enjoined and restrained from unilaterally causing or permitting the minor child or children of the parties to be removed from the jurisdiction of the court without the permission of the court, except in an emergency which has been created by the other party to the action.
